

Leahurst Small Animal Post Mortem Laboratory Refurbishment

This project comprised of the refurbishment of the small animal post-mortem laboratory located at the University of Liverpool's Leahurst campus.

The development at The School of Veterinary Science is located in rural Cheshire, approximately 20 miles south of Liverpool and has seen the existing post-mortem room undergo a substantial renovation.

Associated laboratory facilities for histology sample preparation and electron microscopy and additional office space will complete the pathology accommodation meaning all pathology activity can now take place on one site.

Key Aspects

- ✓ Supply and fix of new suspended ceiling.
- ✓ Careful removal of existing ceramic washbasins.
- ✓ Ensure access is maintained to occupied areas during works.
